Rationale for Business Exposure:

The specialization subjects in each semester are DSE (Discipline Specific Electives) and GE (General Electives) in BBA (IB) having four credits each. This manual intends to underline the guidelines for the projects, visits and tutorials for these subjects. Course codes 306 are courses having (2+2) = 4 credits. (2 credits for Business Exposure)

- There will be viva voce examination of 50 marks and a Written Examination carrying 50 marks for the students.
- The evaluation will be conducted at the SPPU level through Viva Voce.

1.1 Guidelines to Teachers: The following are the indicative guidelines to the subject teachers:

A case should contain a description of the setting (time and place), the characters (personality and responsibility), and a sequence of events that are present in the problem or decision-making situation. Cases are usually presented in a narrative or story format. A narrative is a story of an event. It includes what happened, who was involved, when it happened, why it happened, and how it happened. The good narrative brings the characters and actions to life. The usual way to organize a narrative is chronologically, in the order in which events occur. The case will draw the analysts into different interpretations, different judgments, different decisions and, consequently, different actions to take.

Introduction: Technology has revolutionized the way of living. In such a fast-paced society technology is ever-changing. The students must learn this technological interface in different specialisations.

The technological advancement is essential for big and small traders. Small business owners should consider implementing technology in their various stages of business for streamlined integration and to make room for future expansion. Basic software enables to automate back-office functions, such as financial record keeping, payroll, and digital marketing, etc. The technology syncs automatically with various other software back at the office.

Many types of business technologies or software programs are user-friendly and allow business owners with only minor backgrounds in information technology to make the most of their tools and features. There is an urgent need to understand these technologies for better employment.

Computer programs and business software usually allow small businesses to avoid paying labor costs along with employee benefits.

We all have witnessed that websites represent a low-cost option that consumers can access 24/7 to purchase goods or services. Small business owners can also use internet advertising to reach new markets and customers through carefully placed web banners or ads. The students are expected to study their needs.

Technology provides managers with decision-making tools to help manage costs and enables them to reduce the time spent on administrative and legal compliance work, while maintaining an efficient and effective workforce to deliver quality service. During their graduation students are advised to learn them.

The computer interface project work is the part of semester IV in BBA and BBA (IB) under the subject code 406. These computer-enabled projects will help the student to understand the computer technology which is used in present and can contribute in future development.

Computer Interface The project will help the students to understand how the computers /technology /AI is used in business for the collection of information, generating source of information, post entries, various information required to make decisions, data collection, identification of the particular source of information, and how the information is further processed. Various types of reports are generated on the filled data.

Objectives of Computer Enabling Activities:

- To familiarize Computer Applications used in a particular department and understand jargons of that respective field.
- To understand various concepts and steps relating to designing of Computer Technologies and its applications in various fields of specialization.

Method of Conducting Projects -

Requirement – High-Speed Internet or Wi-Fi , computer and screen. The teachers will search and download the free demo modules available on the internet as per the suggestive list mentioned in the syllabus.

- Teachers will run the software through dummy entries and explain its importance to the students.
- Students are expected to learn from online demo modules and its utility in the business or actual life situations.

Expected Outcome:

The Faculties are expected to search on various sites mentioning the requirements of the technological interface in the specific specialisation. This will help the students to identify how technology is being used and will be used or scope in future for such technology in the domain areas of Marketing, Finance, Human Resource, services, Logistics, and Agriculture. The students should learn the need, purpose, functions, utility, and requirements of software technology in business at micro and macro scale.

Project Guidelines for Students:

Students can search online information after learning through the demo. Students will prepare project report based on data collected (Online or offline).

Based on the observed demo or collected information from technology users students will have to prepare requirement sheets of various industries and analyze computer-enabled activities. The students will study various difficulties faced in absence of technology and identify probable solutions for the same.

The project can be descriptive with existing systems/prevailing conditions of the topic under Research.

Structure of the project report

A) Introduction– Based on the topic of study (from the chosen specialization of BBA), e.g. if it is a study on of Marketing practice, an introduction as to what is Marketing and its practices, and other relevant information should be given in context to the organization where this project is undertaken.

Manual of Internship Programme for

Third Year B.B.A. and B.B.A.(IB) Students (Semester VI)

Under Choice Based Credit System

Introduction :

Youth plays a crucial role in achieving the economic prosperity of the country. In the present scenario, it is found that most of the youth being educated is facing severe unemployment problems due to a lack of skills and technical knowledge. Most of them are unaware of the developments taking place in the modern world.

A student requires a new vision with curricular support for employment. Apprenticeship/internship has a prominent role to play in linking higher education with the requirements of the industry and the world of work. The internship is considered to be one of the most effective ways to develop skilled manpower for the country. The internship facility is offered to the students to bridge the gap between theory and practical work.

National Skill Development Initiative will empower all individuals through improved skills, knowledge, nationally and internationally recognized qualifications to gain access to employment and ensure India's competitiveness in the global market.

The National Education Policy 2020 also emphasizes Practical Assignments and Skill Development to the students across institutes of higher learning in various streams.

In this view, Savitribai Phule Pune University has come up with a concept to provide 'Internship' to all students studying in semesters V & VI across the faculty of commerce.

The internship programme will provide valuable work experience to the students, help them explore a career path and develop and refine skills that will eventually give themselves an edge in the job market.

The University has established a pool of business establishments that is willing to provide practical exposure to the students. The certificate awarded by these establishments will add value to the academic credentials of participating students.

Eligibility for Internship Programme

The students who have sought admission to the semesters V & VI of T.Y.B.B.A and B.B.A. (IB) under Choice Based Credit System need to undergo 'Internship Programme'. The internship programme is compulsory.

Nature of Internship Programme

A student has to undergo minimum of sixty hours of practical training in business establishments. The list of these establishments will be provided by the University. In case, a student is unable to join the enlisted establishment, he/ she can choose an establishment in consultation with the concerned teacher.

Salient features of Internship Programme The fundamental framework of the internship is as below:

- a. The internship is of four credits in the VI semester
- b. Internship will be of minimum sixty clock hours.
- c. The Internship Programme is based on the contents that are prescribed for all the papers under relevant disciplines.
- d. The Internship Programme shall be part-time or full-time depending on the nature of jobs
- e. Successful completion of the Internship Programme is mandatory, in case a student could not complete the internship as per prescribed standards he/she would have to undergo the Internship Programme again in different establishment.
- f. A student is entitled to a 'Completion Certificate' after successful completion of the Internship Programme.
- g. The internship provider may select the apprentice student for regular employment depending on the skill set and nature of performance exhibited by the student.
- h. A student is solely responsible for his behavior in the business establishment during the Internship Programme.
- i. Types of Internships

1. On Job – Students can register with any organization, business, traders, or office.
2. Virtual internships - Another option is a virtual internship which can be completed remotely. This means the intern can work from home rather than in the office. Virtual internships can be attractive and flexible, Finance, HR, Marketing or from any discipline students can work as per the need of the employer.

3. Externships/Shadow–Internship- Observation-based internship – Instead of actually working in an organization the student can observe the employer while working and he/she will record the observations on working. This is another option for an internship. Externships provide brief experiential learning opportunities for students, typically consisting of few days or few weeks.

Outcome

Internship learning outcomes will focus on knowledge and abilities that prepare students for potential employment. This will enable students to demonstrate workforce professional abilities within the required domain of their chosen subject.

Suggestive Tie-ups for colleges

The SPPU has signed MOUs for internship. The colleges can take the benefits of this facility. Apart from that, the colleges may sign MOUs with industry associations like FICCI, CII, MCCIA, commercial and non-commercial or organizations, enterprises, offices and industry, etc. Sector Skill Councils (SSC) and Board of Apprenticeship Training (BOAT) will play an important role in helping the colleges in identifying industries for internships.

Guidelines for Teachers

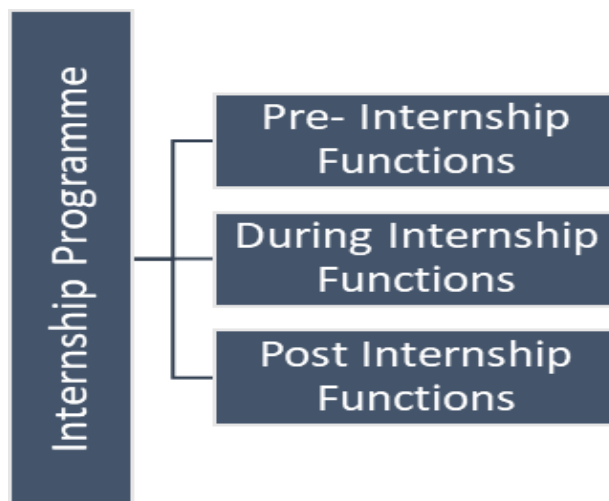

Teachers' contribution in planning and implementation of Internship Programme is very crucial and pivotal. Teachers need to play the role of a guide and mentor to make the Internship Programme a flagship initiative.

Meaningful execution of the Internship Programme will add significant value not only to the skill set of students but will enhance institutional image to a significant extent

The college teachers should encourage offering the internship to the students. It will make the students aware of the programme along with its merits to motivate them to opt for an internship. The colleges must promote Industry-Academia linkages and improve college credibility along with improving the teaching-learning process.

For effective implementation of the Internship Programme, it is advised that the concerned department constitutes an 'Internship Programme Execution Cell'. The cell will plan and implement the Internship Programme according to the guidelines issued by the University. The cell is also expected to monitor and review the progress and outcomes of the programme at regular intervals and make necessary changes.

Role of teachers in execution of the Internship Programme is divided into three sections:

Manual of Internship Programme for Third Year B. Com. Students
(Semester V & VI)
Under
Choice Based Credit System

June 2021

Preamble: -

India is recognized as one of the youngest nations in the world with over 50% of the population under 30 years. It is estimated that by about 2025, India will have the 25% of the total global workforce (World Competitiveness Yearbook, 2012).

Hence, there is a need to further develop and empower the human capital to ensure the nation's global competitiveness. As far the economic progress of our country is concerned, India is still lagging behind due to various problems like poverty, unemployment, illiteracy, medical infrastructure etc.

Youth plays a crucial role in achieving economic prosperity of the country. In the present scenario, it is found that most of the youth being educated are facing severe unemployment problem due to lack of skills and technical knowledge. Most of them are unaware of the developments taking place in the modern world.

National Skill Development Initiative will empower all individuals through improved skills, knowledge, nationally and internationally recognized qualifications to gain access to employment and ensure India's competitiveness in the global market.

The National Education Policy 2020 also emphasize Practical Assignments and Skill Development to the students across institutes of higher learning in various streams.

In view of this, Savitribai Phule Pune University has come up with a concept to provide 'Internship' to all students studying in semester V & VI across faculty of commerce.

The internship programme will provide valuable work experience to the students, help them explore a career path and develop and refine skills that will eventually give themselves an edge in the job market

The University has established a pool of business establishments who are willing to provide practical exposure to the students for sixty hours in their respective organisations. The certificate awarded by these establishments will add a value to the academic credentials of participating students.

Guidelines for Teachers

Teachers' contribution in planning and implementation of Internship Programme is very crucial and pivotal. Teachers need to play the role of a guide and philosopher to make the Internship Programme a flagship initiative and also making it a success.

Meaningful execution of the Internship Programme will add a significant value not only to the skillset of students but will enhance institutional image to a significant extent.

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council also emphasizes Internship Programme as a part of effective curriculum delivery. The number of students undergoing Internship Programme will certainly aid colleges to secure better grades during evaluation.

For effective implementation of the Internship Programme, it is advised that the concerned department institutes an 'Internship Programme Execution Cell'. The cell will plan and implement the Internship Programme according to the guidelines issued by the university. The cell is also expected to monitor and review the progress and outcomes of the programme with regular intervals and make necessary changes.

Role of teachers in execution of the Internship Programme is divided into three sections:

Guidelines for Teachers

Report on RBI Visit Mumbai

Reporting

All the 27 students along with 2 teachers reported to the Pune Railway station on the bright Friday morning sharp 6.45am of 27th May 2022. After all the students assembled, Phalle Sir and Datar sir confirmed the head count and directed the students to the platform on which the train named “Deccan Queen” was going to arrive.

Journey Begin

The “Deccan Queen Express” had taken its position on platform number five, it was scheduled for departure at 7.15am. Our destination was Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus Mumbai which was almost three hours journey from Pune. All of us assembled outside our bogie and simultaneously got escorted by the teachers into our respective seating locations.

The train departed at 7:15am sharp and throughout the journey we came across amazing sceneries of hills and valleys especially after khandala station. The journey was filled with enthusiasm and happiness because it was the first time for many of us to visit the capital of Maharashtra.

After a while passed by, we saw high rise buildings from afar through the train windows and deduced that our destination had arrived at 10:15am. All of us packed our bags, checked for any belongings left behind. On the advice of Phalle Sir, we diligently kept all of our phones within our zipped pockets of the bag so as to prevent any mishap at the crowded station.

As soon as we stepped out of our bogie, the teachers once again reconfirmed the head count and then we gradually proceeded towards moving out of the station and beginning our official academic visit to the locations that were decided.

1. VISIT TO THE MONETARY MUSEUM OF THE RESERVED BANK OF INDIA

After exiting the Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus, we switched on google maps and traversed our path by foot to the highly infamous and prestigious monetary museum managed by the RBI. On the way, we came across multiple lanes, statues, buildings, shops etc. about which we had only heard of but never seen. This trip gave us an opportunity to explore the unturned leaves of aesthetic vibes that 'Bombay' gives to every visitor.

After 10 minutes of walking, we reached outside the premises of the Monetary Museum. We were escorted by multiple CRPF officers who screened our bags, frisked us from head to toe and very kindly offered us a rack to keep our entire belongings safe within the premises. Then, one by one we gathered into the museum and stood in rows so that we could hear the explanation about the museum and its importance by one of the RBI officials.

Mr. Radhakrishnan curator of the Monetary Museum took to the stage and briskly wished us a loud “Good Morning”. He moved forward and told us about the constituents of the concept of money which were printed notes and minted coins. The museum had a deep history and a collection of over 1000 coins as specified by Mr. Radhakrishnan in his monologue. He added to our knowledge by informing us about the various aspects that a currency must have to sustain the economy of a country. All of us were astounded by the deep research that the government had to do when it came to exercising control over currency in general.

After his enlightening talk, he directed the students to follow the arrow on the floor and in an orderly manner all of us saw the coins in the exhibition that looked absolutely stupendous, reminding us of our rich Indian history and culture.

LEARNINGS:

- Barter system had many disabilities and that is why humans switched to using stones, bars or coins as a medium of payment in the medieval ages.
- We saw diagrams about the various features of coins like obverse, edge, reverse, mint mark, legend and rim.
- The old metric weights that were constructed using various metals and alloys were also displayed in the museum with assorted heights and weights.
- Every coin is of a particular weight and defined fineness of the metal used. This was called specie coins

- The students were then shown hundreds of different coins from various time periods in history. Few of the important divisions were as follows:

1. Early indigenous series
2. Early medieval north
3. Early medieval south
4. Delhi Sultanate
5. Vijayanagar
6. Mughal
7. Maratha
8. North Eastern
9. East India Company

There were even demonstrations that showed the non-monetary uses of currency. Along with that there were articles that were kept and on enquiring about them we came to know that they were made up of soiled notes and rusted coins. There were two main objects in particular including a suitcase and a handbag made up of the constituents stated in the previous statement. This was a beautiful way to recycle the paper and metal alloys that is extensively used to generate currency.

Following the completion of seeing the museum, we were then escorted to a room in which we were shown a presentation regarding money, its uses and the importance of currency along with its development in recent times.

We were in the museum until 1:25 PM in the afternoon. After which we proceeded to get some lunch from the adjacent lanes and some of the students even enjoyed the amazing street food that was available at nominal prices which is something that Mumbai is very famous for amongst the youngsters.

2.) THE ASIATIC SOCIETY MUMBAI (STATE CENTRAL LIBRARY)

After having lunch, the teachers reconfirmed the headcount as we gathered outside the RBI office once again and proceeded towards a “huge library” according to what I had heard about it. It was at a walking distance from the RBI building.

As we walked through the lanes of Mumbai city, seeing the old architecture and rustic beauty of the different places, we reached the premises of a building that began at a level higher from the ground, white-washed, with tall british block steps, that lead to a structure that looked like a law court, but it was none other than the Asiatic library.

The entrance was the most spacious with tall roofs, old wooden and steel shelves arranged in a proper manner. It looked like a reader’s paradise. There were bounded volumes of Newspapers that I never even heard of. Many people, from all age groups, sat there silently, drowning into the knowledge that their books were giving them.

We slowly traversed around the library and saw the amazing collection of books ranging from every subject that mankind had ever come across. Just when I thought that the library visit was done, Both the teachers escorted us to a place towards the inside of the library which, to my surprise, was another whole world in itself.

The library seemed to be absolutely unending with spiral staircases and multiple wide stanced rooms decorated with subtle furniture, lightings and infrastructural framework that reeked of classic British-Roman interior designing.

There were many marble statues of great scholars and respected British governors that had helped India in some or the other manner. The librarian was kind enough to escort us and make us understand all the workings and nitty-gritties of how the library functioned. She even showed us the great Dr. P.N. Kale study area for research and development purposes. She shed light upon the quality of content within the books of the library, its preservation methods and also about the online website of the library where we could rent books using the library's interface; that was an idea developed to tackle the covid situation.

As future post-graduate students, the library would surely be like “heaven on earth” for us and we all were really glad that we got to see such an informative place and spend time understanding how it is handled.

Infact, both, RBI monetary museum and the Asiatic Library were of serious importance and had significant-information's gravity for our future careers in the field that we are currently pursuing.

Personally, the ones who loved reading books wouldn't ever want to leave that place. But eventually, after gaining information about the library, our visiting time came to an end and we left the library at around 3pm to move to our next location.

3.) THE GATEWAY OF INDIA

We had only one hour left in hand before we had to reach back to the station and wind up for the day. Hence, we moved ahead to visit the Gateway of India which was quite a distance from the Asiatic Library, but all the students wanted to end the day by seeing the monumental figure.

As we walked to the Gateway, Mumbai couldn't cease to surprise us with various high rise buildings and architectural masterpieces on the way. The students halted for a short cold-drink break and then finally reached the Gateway of India.

Eventually, all of us clicked pictures and looked at the structural supremacy, various ships around it, the windy breeze of the Arabian sea etc. There was nothing that we didn't enjoy at the Gateway of India and everyone was glad to end the day in this manner

As soon as it struck 4pm by the watch, Everyone gathered and set by set used the BEST buses in Mumbai to get back to the station so that we could be on time, keeping in mind the traffic of the city that we had to deal with.

Happy Ending

Everyone reached the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus by 4:30 pm . The train Deccan Queen was scheduled to leave by 5:10 pm. The teachers made sure everyone was on board and re-checked everyone's attendance properly.

After three hours journey, at around 8:30 pm , the train reached Pune station and all of us got down and assembled for a group picture. Everyone was satisfied with the trip and one by one all of us left for our respective homes.

After reaching home, all of us confirmed our safe arrival on the official whatsapp group and thanked the teachers for such a wonderful and fruitful day that we will remember for years to come.

Unanimously, as a framed opinion, the students have zealous consensus regarding the importance of the practice of such visits to be arranged on a regular basis as it would enlighten the students about the rich tradition of commerce considering its salient places that aid this country's economic reputation.
