49th Colelge Foundation Day

On 16th July, 2017, the College celebrated its 49th Foundation Day in consonance with its commitment to recognition of scholarly contributions and dissemination of knowledge among students and teachers. In keeping with tradition, the event comprised of a lecture by the Scholar of the Year Awardee and conferment of the award thereafter.

The Foundation Day lecture, a significant event in the academic calendar of the college was held on the occasion of the 49th Foundation Day of the college at the Neville Wadia Hall on 16th July, 2017. Each year, the college confers the prestigious "Scholar of the Year Award" on a renowned scholar in recognition of his or her scholarly contribution and quest for academic excellence. The award for the year 2017-18 was conferred on Dr. Bhalchandra Mungekar, former Vice-Chancellor, Mumbai University, former Member, Planning Commission of India and former MP, Rajya Sabha, an eminent Economist, Teacher, Educationist, Social Worker.

The event began with an opening address by Prin. Professor Girija Shankar who gave the audience an insight in to the history of the college together with an encapsulation of some milestones along the way. This was followed by an introduction of Dr. Mungekar by Mr. Prakash Chaudhari, Vice-Principal and Head, Department of Business Laws and his felicitation by Professor Girija Shankar who presented him with a bouquet of flowers and a memento.

Dr. Mungekar began his lecture on the topic "Challenges of Inequality", by paying tribute to the memory of the Wadias, founding fathers and generous donors who established the Wadia colleges run by the Modern Education Society and who together with the Tatas, led the Parsi community from the front in the industrial development of India. Dr. Mungekar's wife being an alumna of Wadia College, he said, this was his personal association with the campus.

In his lecture, Dr. Mungekar stated that economic inequality is a disturbing subject. It is the root cause of every problem, be it, social, political, gender based, income inequality or distribution of wealth. The roots of every problem the world faces today lie in economic inequality. It is in fact, the mother of all inequalities and directs all other inequalities. He opined that the problem with Indians is that while we want equality with the rest of the world, we do not treat each other equally and continue to discriminate among each other based on caste, gender, social status, state of origin, etc. He raised the question-How can we expect equality when we do not practice it to begin with?

He went on to say that, the political instability we see around the world is due to inequality in various spheres of life. He stated that, it is futile to conceive of and bring about sustainable development without examining the causal relationship between economic development and inequality. Since, economic reforms were introduced in 1991; "inequality" has disappeared from public discourse. We have in fact, begun accepting inequality/unequal treatment by people.

In order to highlight the gravity and extent of inequality he mentioned some facts and figures:

- 500 of the richest people have an income which exceeds the collective income of 416 million people.
- Top 10% of the world's population account for 56% of global wealth.
- 250 crore people in the world live on less than $2 per day. Of these 250 crore, 50% people live in India and the rest in countries like Pakistan, Bangladesh, Latin America and the African nations.
- Since 2010, income inequality has risen. NSS (National Sample Survey) survey and CSO data, both, show that after 1991, the benefits of more than 60-70% of economic growth have been pocketed by just 10% of the Indian population. Women, children, scheduled castes and tribes have been deprived of the benefits of economic development.
- 1% of Americans share more than 70% of the total income and wealth of the US

Next, Dr. Mungekar highlighted the damaging effects of inequality:

1. Income inequality causes inequality in other spheres.
2. Inequality is structurally related. For instance high rates of divorce can be attributed to growing economic independence of women.
3. The structure of inequality is transmitted from one generation to another.
4. Owing to economic inequality, those who are economically backward cannot participate in democracy.
5. Countries suffering from gross inequalities are not cohesive and politically stable. Violence and rebel movements like the Naxalite movement are caused by inequality and deprivation owing to the misuse of resources for lopsided development.
6. The feeling of brotherhood in a nation and society comes only if certain common, economic benefits are available to all.

- 7. The HDI (Human Development Index) of a nation is adversely impacted by inequality. The greater the inequality, the lower the index. India is at 154, among 189 countries in the HDI ranking, even below Sri Lanka which is a smaller country and unlike us does not boast of a rapid growth rate.
- 8. This inequality will hinder and in fact make sustainable development unachievable. To illustrate this he cited facts and figures as follows:
  - a. India is losing groundwater faster than any other country in the world.
  - b. Per capita water consumption in developed countries is 425 liters/day while it is 67 liters/day or even lower in developing countries.
  - c. Global warming, alarmingly high rates of carbon emission and rising sea level are all cause for great concern.

He ended his talk by saying that economic inequality is the root cause of social problems. He reiterated the warning that Dr. B. R. Ambedkar gave in the year 1949 by saying that-economic inequality and contradictions must be controlled and removed by political parties who are at the helm of affairs of the nation. If this is not done at the earliest, political and social instability will shatter our political democracy.

The lecture was followed by the felicitation of Dr. W. N. Gade, former Vice-Chancellor of the Savitribai Phule Pune University, and Chief Guest of the ensuing program of conferment of the Scholar of the Year Award 2017-18 at the Tata Assembly Hall.

After Dr. Mungekar's thought provoking lecture and an interactive question-answer session, the vote of thanks for this session was presented by Dr. Mahendra Agale, Associate Professor, Ness Wadia College of Commerce.

The foundation Day Lecture was followed by the at home function and conferment of the scholar of the year award at the Dorab Tata Assembly hall.

The program began with a welcome speech by Principal Prof. Dr. Girija Shankar. She reviewed the college activities for the academic year 2016-17. The Chief Guest Prof. Dr. W.N. Gade, in his speech at the outset congratulated the college on occasion of the 49th Foundation Day. He praised Dr. BalchandraMungekar and congratulated him for his achievements and excellence. He said that NWCC has emerged as one of the premier education institutions in the field of commerce. He stated his happiness about the college's tradition of Scholar of the Year award and Foundation Day celebrations. He commended Ness Wadia College of Commerce for being controversy free and without any complaints against it during his 5 year tenure as the Vice Chancellor. He stated that the challenge faced by the education system is the lack of competent human resource and a premier institute like NWCC can meet this challenge by integrating research with teaching.

In his acceptance speech, prof. Dr. Mungekar thanked NWCC for this overwhelming honor. He congratulated the college for its all-round achievements and promised to promote them around various colleges in India as a role model for education in commerce. He especially mentioned and praised the management, staff and students of NWCC for the excellence. He further spoke about the state of the education system in India today and what education should be really like.

He lamented about India's failed education policy and stressed the need for investment in human capital by investing in education. He stated that because of the vicious cycle of education, there is disparity and inequality in the current education system.

The function concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. Sonia Iyengar, Supervisor, Junior college NWCC.
