Series of Webinars on 'START-UP STORIES

"A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step," said Lao Tzu. Just as exciting & enticing the buzz word 'Start-up' sounds, there exists an exciting story behind every start-up. Let's listen to our speakers narrate their Start-up Stories & learn how their journey up till now began with a single step.

Mr. KAVAN ANTANI

"Design is always a way to communicate with humans."

Mr. Kavan Antani sir excellently explained that if there are humans, there will be designs. He is an entrepreneur, who at the age of 15 launched his own online platform, Banana Bandy, now known as Indiefolio (check spelling) along with a friend who was 17 years old. The website tries and launches people's careers and has been working with brands like Reliance Jio, Shopify, HP, Redbull, etc. They also provide community services like master classes, workshops, contests, and award functions.

Kavan sir encouraged everyone to follow their dreams and told hard work and persistence were the key features for success. He considers failure to be a crucial aspect in one's journey as without failing we would never know what success would feel like. He beautifully explained the role of parents in his journey and said their support was the most important thing for him, as should be for everyone pursuing their dreams. He said that our first pitch of the business plan should be for our parents as they are our major investors and well-wishers. It was overall a very motivating and helpful session which inspired me to start small and still reach great heights.

Mr. RAHUL DEO

"Everyone is a photographer." Said Mr. Rahul deo.

He started his career in 1995, with a job and photography his second career as his 2nd career choice. But with time he realised that photography had more of his heart and decided to start his own photography firm and now is the owner of Rahul Deo Photography.

Photography is the most popular hobby in the world, it is like a time machine that inspires your imagination and also is powerful enough to evoke your emotions.

Becoming a good photographer doesn't mean your camera is going wonders, the skill is within you said Rahul sir.

He also shared some very insightful photography tips like

1. you should shoot at eye level of the subject.
2. Don't stop on one click
3. Light is to be used correctly.
4. value the moment and then the artistry.

lastly, he also said that you are self-employed when you are a professional. He also discussed some of jack ma's guidelines. And ended his session with Q&A.

Attendance: 33 students and 2 teachers

Mr. VIVEK SADHALE

“Constraints will always exist. No matter if you are successful or are beginning from a clean slate.”

Said Mr. Vivek Sadhale, co-founder of Lega Logics. He started his career in 1995, with a job at Seamen's and eventually went to start his own company Lega Logics. Lega Logics is an eight-year-old firm who follow four principles: 1. Never deviate from your core. 2. Treat everyone equally. 3. Never miss any salary. 4. Zero tolerance policy for harassment.

Vivek sir stressed on creating a network as it is the most important thing for a business. He also suggested that success and failure of business to depend on our ability to execute an idea and not on what the idea or innovation is. He urged us to never deviate from our core. He also told us to focus on ourselves and not to compare ourselves with others as we do not need to be like someone else. He also told us the importance of building goodwill and that it is the most difficult thing to do. Being responsive and prompt is something I will always carry with me from this session.

Modern education Society's Ness Wadia College of Commerce, Pune Report on 'Costing for Start-ups' Saturday, 29th January, 2022

5pm to 6:15 pm

Mode: Webinar

Platform: Google meet

The startup and innovation cell of the Ness Wadia College of Commerce, Pune, held a panel discussion 'Costing for Start-ups' on 29th January 2022. This discussion was conducted to help students understand the various costs and recognize the obstacles in their way while starting a start-up. The opening remarks for the event was delivered by Tushar Gopalkrishnan, a student member of the cell. Further, Dr Marriam Noronha, coordinator of the cell, expressed her ideas behind holding this event. She describes the event as a beautiful blend of insights and experiences brought by the panel from different sectors.

The event was attended by 94 members, including the students and teachers of Ness Wadia College of commerce. The panel was introduced by Akshat, who along with Tushar, was anchoring the event. The panel consists of 5 dynamic and new age startup founders namely Mr. Yogesh Shinde, CA Vaibhav Jain, Mr. Harsha Kankanala, Ms. Surabhi Bogawat and Mr. Saksham Misra. Mr. Harsha, co-founder of Edwisely, spoke to students about the product cost and the people cost. He highlights the fact that there is no straightforward math to calculate a common start-up cost. Calculating start-up costs requires common sense and thorough knowledge of one's field. Mr. Harsha believes that there is no fixed path that one can follow to be successful. Everybody has their own equation of success and everyone needs to find it by themselves. Another important aspect that Mr. Harsha highlighted was 'following your passion.' "passion matter more than money" he says while he shares his experience of the beginning years of his start up Edwisely.

Mr Yogesh Shinde, co-founder of the bamboo India, who has gained popularity recently with his appearance in shark tank, too, shared insightful experiences. He suggests that there are lots of parameters on analyzing the cost of starting a start-up. Mr. Yogesh introduced the students with two price aspects namely the prices to manufacture the product (the environmental cost) and the MRP. He said that it was hard to summarize the costs necessary for a start-up but it is necessary to check the competitor's product's price. Mr. Yogesh also broke the myth – eco friendly products are costly.

Later , as the session proceeded, the students learnt the concept of opportunity cost , explained wonderfully by CA Vaibhav Jain. He explained the importance of analyzing the opportunity cost in the light of passion. Vaibhav shared his experience of a startup in the food industry while telling the audience about the bigger challenges like logistics that come in the way of budding start-ups.

Adding to the manufacturing experiences, Saksham shared his story with the students that includes cost to test the product. Contradictory to the remote lessons, Saksham brought forward his support to the concept of Jugaad (short-cut). He mentioned the various sources like Google and youtube that help students to understand their idea well and have a deep reasearch. As the event went by , Saksham shared thoughtful ideas to analyse one's startup.

One of the major takeaways for the event was given by Surabhi as addressed students whose family runs a business. Surabhi shares her learnings as she opened the Sweet home bakery (based on the name of the restaurant her father runs) and how her father's goodwill helped her run a bakery business successfully. Surabhi asks the students to not resist their family business but to experiment along with it and to judge the business environment beforehand.

Overall this session was insightful and full of unique incidents brought to the students by the panelists. It was amusing how the experiences of someone else brings learnings to many . Sessions like these are not only pleasing to attend but also a great learning for practical life. The event ended with the question and answer session and the closing remarks by the panelists.

Report for the event: Instagram Live
Session with Mitesh Pradhan

Saturday, 19th February 2022

3p.m. - 4p.m.

On Saturday, 19th February, 2022, the Startup & Innovation Cell of Ness Wadia College of Commerce, Pune had organized an Instagram Live session with Mr. Mitesh Pradhan, Founder, MyColors Institute of Visual Arts. The session was steered by Akshat Mandalgi, student of TY B.Voc and Core Committee Member of the Cell was held from 3 pm to 4 pm.

The session began with a brief introduction of Mr. Pradhan. It was an immersive, interactive, informative and insightful experience.

During the session Mr. Pradhan shared his story of failing as a student in Class XI then going on to completing his Bachelors and Masters Degree in Fine Arts. He has been teaching art since he was in Class IX. Though he was not good at academics he was deeply interested in art.

He was fortunate enough to have parents who supported him in this journey because they gave him the freedom to do what he liked, enjoyed and was good at instead of pushing him to pursue academics which he was not very inclined towards.

He shared that his path had not been an easy one because his parents were frequently transferred and each time he had to make a fresh start. Sometimes he did question as to how many times he would have to start over. When speaking about challenges he said that every problem gravitates towards the solution. Hence, when we face a problem it has definitely come before us so that we can progress. The path to progress has a number of problems.

He shared the importance of focus and dedication while narrating 3 stories of his students who had excelled in design courses and examinations. He has trained students who have topped the entrance exams for NIFT (National Institute of Fashion Technology), NID (National Institute of Design) and other prestigious institutes. Today design graduates are needed in all domains and are drawing packages equivalent to engineers from premiere institutes. Hence, art and design can be lucrative, rewarding and fulfilling careers. His journey as a teacher has been fulfilling in more ways than one because his students teach him a lot.

He shared the reason behind selecting the name MyColors for his institute. MyColors makes for a personalised learning experience for every student. Before the pandemic their institute had 5 branches across Pune city and they believed that in-person classes were the best way to teach and learn. However the pandemic changed all that. With his students help he started online classes, took 4 internet connections, bought an inverter and tried to eliminate every possible technical glitch to give his students a seamless learning experience.

Thus, Mr Pradhan illuminated attendees with his insightful answers and by sharing his thoughts and experiences to the students. He further motivated attendees to follow the path that they love and start working towards it and money will follow.

The session ended with a vote of thanks to Mr. Pradhan.

Report on the National Level Workshop on "

online on

Wednesday, 16th March 2022

Timings: 11a.m.- 2p.m.

Coordinator: Dr Mariam Noronha

On Wednesday, 16th March 2022, the Startup & Innovation Cell of Ness Wadia College of Commerce, Pune organized a National Level Inter-collegiate workshop on 'Marketing for Startup Founders' sponsored by the Board of Students Development Savitribai Phule Pune University. Akshat Mandalgi and Aryan Raundhal of TY B.Voc and S.Y. B.Com respectively, student members of the Core Committee of the Cell hosted the event. The session was conducted on the Google Meet platform as per schedule from 11a.m. to 2p.m.

Professor Vrushali Randhir, In-charge Principal gave the opening remarks. Dr Mariam Noronha, Coordinator, Startup and Innovation Cell of the College shed light on the rationale behind the workshop. She shared that the online conduct of the event had widened its reach to the national level with registrations from Delhi NCR, Chennai, Bengaluru and Goa.

To ensure smooth conduct of the webinar, it was divided into three sessions and resource persons were:

Mr Yogesh Shinde, Co-Founder Bamboo India

Ms Reeya Sharma, Founder Reeyal by Reeya Sharma

Ms Surbhi Bogawat, Founder Sweet Home Bakery

Before the formal program could begin rules and guidelines to ensure the smooth conduct of the event were shared. This was followed by an introduction of Mr. Yogesh Shinde.

In the first session, Mr Shinde talked about the need for a strong marketing campaign, how marketing helped in the major success of Bamboo India, why connecting with customers is very important, honesty and authenticity is of prime importance and so on.

He then briefed us about marketing strategies like why 'word of mouth' publicity is very important in business, how e-commerce helps you to sell your products anywhere in the country, how you can maintain customer relations etc

He also shared his insights about the product, marketing and customer preferences. He is of the opinion that if your product is good, you don't have to spend a single rupee on marketing. Your product should have some value, only then can you sell your product.

Towards the end of his talk, he addressed the questions of the attendees, which made the session an interactive one.

The second session of this workshop began with an introduction of the next speaker, Ms Reeya Sharma. She shared some of the key points from the previous session which she liked. She shared a beautiful presentation and some wonderful insights and experiences.

Someone at the beginning of the session asked one question, 'let's say we share our idea with our relatives or friends, what if the idea gets stolen?' She took this question into consideration and answered it by saying that there is no harm in sharing ideas with your friends, colleagues and family. This is because we are all different. They won't be able to copy your execution.

During the session she shared some interesting perspectives like 'no idea is a bad idea', you just have to see who your target audience is. Sharing the importance of pitching ideas to various business platforms. Also briefing us about why long term vision is important in business.

The session ended with a question- answer round in which she addressed queries to the best of her knowledge, experience, and acumen. The session was rather insightful.

Kickstarting the third session, the hosts introduced the next speaker Ms Surabhi Bogawat and invited her to take over the platform for the day.

Surabhi started the session by shedding light on her venture. She touched upon important aspects like location, as to why she chose Ahmednagar for cupcake business, how goodwill helped in making her business more profitable, how she used the already available labour, resources, brand name and goodwill of her father's business.

She elaborated how many difficulties she faced when she started her business in Ahmednagar. In Ahmednagar, people didn't know what a cupcake was. So, she had to make people aware about her products. In the session she gave an example, she used to tell customers that it's 'wati cake' (which means cupcake in English). The themed cakes were very expensive. People were unwilling to buy the theme cakes. She shared how she overcame these difficulties in such a short time.

Furthermore, she talked about her marketing strategies. At the beginning of her business, how she used her friend circle as a mode of marketing, how she used social media for marketing and how she used exhibitions for marketing, etc. How all these marketing strategies helped her business grow.

She showed us various cupcakes and theme cakes through her presentation in the session which made the session very fascinating.

Towards the end of her session she answered all the questions which attendees had.

The final session was followed by closing remarks by Dr. Mariam Noronha who expressed the desire that this workshop should be the beginning of a lifetime of learning about marketing for all attendees.

Akshat Mandalgi presented the vote of thanks to the speaker for enriching the students. He also thanked the audience for their patience and active participation. He then declared the session closed.

Topic: Digital Laws in Business Sector

Following is a detailed description of the proceedings:

The inaugural session began with a welcome address and opening remarks by Professor Dr Vrishali S Randhir, In- Charge Principal, Ness Wadia College of Commerce Pune. This was followed by a brief about the rationale of the seminar and an introduction of the Chief Guest and Guest of Honor by Professor Dr Prakash Chaudhary, Vice - Principal, Head, Department of Business Laws of the College and Seminar Coordinator.

The Chief Guest for the event, Prin. Professor Dr Arun Gaikwad, Chairman, Board of Studies, Business Law, SPPU (Savitribai Phule Pune University) expressed his happiness at the conduct of this seminar on the subject of Business Laws. Guest of Honor, Dr Abhay Hake stated that law, life and business are intertwined and such seminars help students and teachers to keep abreast of latest developments in these domains. Both guests appreciated the efforts taken by the organizers of the seminar with regard to the conduct of the event.

Due to some technical glitches, the keynote speaker was a little delayed in joining the session. In the meantime Advocate Tejesh Dande, Advocate Bombay High Court delivered his talk on Business Disputes and Court Litigations which was originally scheduled as Session 1 of the seminar. During his talk Advocate Dande drew from his rich, practical experience of handling litigations and his practice at Bombay High Court. He spoke about legal dimensions of business with special reference to Corporations, Company law and corporate governance and highlighted certain sections like Sec 138 of Negotiable instrument Act consequences of dishonor of a cheque and its implications.

The keynote address followed Advocate Dande's talk subsequent to an introduction and welcome of the keynote speaker. The keynote address by Advocate Swapnil Bangali, Honorary Director, Centre for Information Communication Technology and Law, Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, had one main premise, "today you cannot afford to be someone who is not a generalist". You cannot be a master of all but you have to know a little of everything. In order to practice law, one has to realize that there is no clear demarcation between civil, criminal and business law. One cannot practice only one kind of law, one has to know about different aspects of law. Law is becoming multi-faceted now.

Dr. Bangali observed that, in India, we are on the path to over regulation, this plagues many countries including the United States of America. Up until a few years ago we did not have so many types of companies. Today we have so many types and several regulations for each type. For instance a limited liability partnership is connected with the MCA (MInistry of Corporate Affairs) and a sole proprietorship with the Shop Act. Complexity and compliances are increasing for all entities now. You need regulatory mechanisms for every system/ legislation that is created. The sheer magnitude of this can be gauged from the example of SEBI (The Securities and Exchange Board of India) which was established in 1992 and has created some 1200 plus regulations. The same could be said of banking regulations, intellectual property rights, arbitration, mergers and acquisitions and company law.

The inaugural session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mariam Noronha, Seminar Coordinator.

The second technical session began immediately after this. Advocate Sudhakar E Avhad, Former Chairman Bar council of Maharashtra and Goa was introduced to the audience. Adv. Dr. Sudhakar Avhad spoke at length on the following aspects of Artificial Intelligence:

1. The basic concept of Artificial intelligence Utility of Artificial intelligence for business like transport i.e ola, uber and professions like lawyers, Tax consultants etc.
2. How professional activities have been elevated to industry status with the help of artificial intelligence.
3. To survive and thrive we have to adopt technology, new techniques and new modes.

His talk was followed by a vote of thanks.

The third and penultimate session of the seminar was on Digital Laws in the Business Sector. Following his introduction Dr Harold D'costa, delivered his talk during which he drew from his rich experience in various areas like, Cyber Security, Cyber Forensic, Digital Evidence, Cyber Crime Cyber-crime Investigation etc. HE shared some instances from his real time experience in capturing digital evidence related to various cyber-crime cases. He spoke about cyber crimes and punishments and touched upon the following aspects:

1. Damage to computer and computer system
2. Compensation for failure to protect data
3. Tampering with computer source documents
4. Computer related offences
5. Penalty for breach of confidentiality and privacy and disclosure of information in breach of lawful contract
6. Electronic evidences and Composition and functions of World Intellectual Property Rights (WIPO)
